This fantastic Queenslander located in Richmond Hill has so much on offer you will be impressed with what this old girl has on offer.

Traditional characteristic features of polished timber floors, timber archways, tongue and groove walls have been preserved throughout the entire home giving a pleasant feeling of yesteryear with a hint of modern-day all rolled into one.

Expansive wrap around veranda complements your first impression, then leading through the front door you are greeted with small but purposeful sunroom.

Arched hallway leads you through to the air condition lounge and formal dining space.
